1. New telephone cables are made at two factories in Hungary: Felten és Guillaume, Budapest XI, Budafoki-ut 60, which is actually under Russian control; and Kabelgyár r.t., Budapest XI, Fehérvári-ut 120.
2. The automatic switchboards are mostly made by Standard according to their own design. However, some are also made by Telefongyár r.t., Budapest XIV. Hungarikert. 126.
3. The Bratislava-Győr cable is coaxial. The exact design is unknown.
4. The following cables are new but follow the same routes as the former ones:

Budapest-Győr - frontier
Miskolc - frontier
Budapest - Szeged - frontier
Budapest-Békéscsaba - frontier

The old cables have been saved and are to be used inside the country.

5. The cable from Miskolc to Košice is direct and does not go through Szerencs.
